

{yoogallery src=[/images/galleries/Open_doors_Jan2008] width=[60]}

For the forth time on January 26th and 27th had started the European fair “Open Doors for education abroad”.

Every event has its accent and the January fair was under the motto “Education programmes for every age”.

Participants at the fair were: IHTTI, , Istituto Marangoni, , Institut auf dem Rosenberg, Caterham School, European University, Ceran Lingua International, Regent Language Training, Astur, Istituto Europeo di Design, Sherborn School, University of Bedfordshire, Middlesex University, Southampton Solent University, AUBGEmerald Cultural Institute, Brooke House College, European University Cyprus, Sprachcaffe Plus, Glabal Educational Aliance – Alpine centre, Skola, Schiller International University, St. Gilgen International School, St. Michael's school, Tech Music Schools, Trynity International, American College Dublin, Millfield School, St. Giles International, Accademmia della Moda and many more.

The Open doors fair in January 2008 is different, first of all, with the big variety of language programmes. The language centers from all the continents were participating personally at the event. Many of the language schools offered attractive additional activities to the language courses as sports, dancing, cooking, etc.

As well, during the fair were presented some of the best boarding schools as Caterham school (UK), Institut auf dem Rosenberg (Switzerland), St. Gilgen (Austria), Brooke House college (UK), Millfield school (UK), St. Michael's college (UK), Sherborne schools (UK), etc. Some of the participants as Brooke House college also gave information about scholarship's competition especially for Bulgarian students.

The Open doors fair also offered a wide variety of possibilities for university education in the UK and also other European institutions. Many of the universities also offered their possibilities for scholarships like Schiller International school, Coventry University, European University, Tech Musisc schools, etc.

The possibilities for programmes in the area of “Tourism” and “Design” were also presented from IHTTI (Switzerland), Trinity Alpine Center (Switzerland), Istituto Marangoni, Istituto Europeo di Design, etc.

Together with the personal meeting, during the fair were available presentations and seminars.